

“Listening to children and involving them in the promotion and implementation of their rights”

ENOC 14th Annual Meeting

7-9 October 2010

European Youth Centre
Strasbourg / France

The 2010 ENOC Annual Conference and General Assembly will take place in the premises of the European Youth Centre of the Council of Europe Strasbourg.

Its main theme will be: “Listening to children and involving them in the promotion and implementation of their rights.”

This year, ENOC attempts for the first time to combine ombudspersons’ meeting with a gathering of representatives of youth advisory panels / groups from ENOC members across Europe, aiming at their collaboration and interaction.

After taking stock of children and young people’s input throughout the year on the proposed topics of violence, education, health, privacy and the risks linked to the use of new technologies, the 2010 Annual Conference will provide a unique opportunity:

- to develop the possibility for young people to express their views, analysis and proposals concerning topics related to children’s rights in a framework that exceeds the national boundaries. It is expected that young people from 15 member states will take part in the Annual Conference in a parallel meeting to this of ENOC members,
- to allow interaction between ombudspersons and young people on the content of the chosen proposals,
- to present and promote dialogue on recent international developments in the field of implementation and defense of children’s rights,
- to serve as a forum for the exchange of good practices, strategies, key researches, ideas, models and campaigns between ENOC members themselves and between ENOC member institutions and stakeholders, i.e. the Council of Europe, the European Commission, the European Parliament, The UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, the EU Fundamental Rights Agency, UNICEF, etc,
- to discuss the current challenges and threats faced by Children’s Ombuds institutions in Europe, in particular related to the financial crisis,
- to adopt commonly constructed recommendations based on the proposals submitted by ENOC members and their young advisors.

Before the Annual Meeting, working groups established with the participation of ENOC members, coordinated by members of its Bureau and operating via internet, have attempted to formulate some proposals that will be discussed with the young advisors during the Conference. Similarly youth leaders responsible for the co-ordination of youth panels have collaborated to facilitate the young persons’ contribution to the debate. The conference is expected to lead to conclusions and recommendations that will hopefully be disseminated afterwards at national and at European level.
