

ENOC Online Seminar – Programme

DAY 2 – ENOC Statutes

22 September 2020

Platform: ZOOM (Central European Time)

09.10 – 09.30	Arrival & test technology
09.30 – 10.00	Seminar opening & Introduction to ENOC Statutes  Bruce Adamson, ENOC Chairperson-Elect, Children and Young People's Commissioner Scotland (CYPCS)
10.00 – 10.45	Workshop A (attendees divided into two break out groups) Facilitated group discussion: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Role of ENOC and structure of the statute 2. Membership (articles 4 and 5): Criteria and process 3. Membership fees Members can contribute to discussions verbally or through a written comment function which will be available during the session
10.45 – 11.00	Break
11.00 – 11.45	Workshop B (attendees divided into two group) Facilitated group discussion: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Decision making and the ENOC Bureau: responsibilities, term, diversity 2. Resignation and dismissal 3. Updating the Statute - child protection policy, amicus curiae, other issues

European Network of Ombudspersons for Children

	Members can contribute to discussions verbally or through a written comment function which will be available during the session
11.45 – 12.00	Break
12.00 - 12.30	Feedback and closing remarks Bruce Adamson, ENOC Chair Elect, Children and Young People's Commissioner Scotland Facilitators will provide feedback from group discussions

ENOC is co-funded by the European Union's Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (REC 2014-2020).